Amend the Law relating to the Position and Salaries of A.D. 1890.
National School Teachers in Ireland.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

5    1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the National School Teachers (Ireland) Act, 1890. Short title.

2. In construing this Act, the expressions "contributory union" and "result fees" shall have the meaning assigned to them in the National School Teachers (Ireland) Act, 1875. Interpretation of terms.

10   3. From and after the passing of this Act the class or fixed salaries of national teachers shall be paid according to the schedule annexed to this Act, and notwithstanding anything in the National School Teachers (Ireland) Act, 1875, all national teachers shall be paid results fees on the scale on which such fees are now paid to 15 teachers in contributory unions. Increase of teachers salaries.

4. Wherever the words "five pounds" and "thirty-five years" occur in the third section of the National School Teachers Residences (Ireland) Act, 1875, the words "three pounds fifteen shillings" and "fifty years" are hereby respectively substituted. Amendment of 38 & 39 Vict. c. 82.

20   5. For the words "sixty-five years" and "sixty years" in the National School Teachers (Ireland) Act, 1879, the words "sixty years" and "fifty-five years" are hereby respectively substituted, and all national teachers shall be entitled to the maximum rates of pensions awarded to their class on attaining the age of sixty
25 years in the case of males, and fifty-five years in the case of females. All teachers who retire at earlier ages than the maximum herein prescribed shall be entitled to their reduced pensions five years earlier than they would have been if this Act had not been passed. Amendment of 42 & 43 Vict. c. 74.

[Bill 24.]

A.D. 1890.
Maximum of years service.

6. Every national teacher of thirty-five years service shall be entitled to the maximum pension awarded to his class, and should he, through physical incapacity, be compelled to retire before he has completed thirty-five years service he shall be allowed one thirty-fifth of said maximum for every year of such service.
